

District hires Communication and Event Specialist

Meet Holly Scholz

Holly, a Powell Butte native, has joined the Crook County School District as the Communication and Event Specialist. She will work to ensure consistent and effective communication both externally and internally, oversee the district calendar, and be responsible for scheduling district's facilities and managing and supervising events held at district sites. Holly, a 1996 Crook County High School graduate, most recently was a copy editor and reporter for the Central Oregonian newspaper. Holly and her husband, Kris, have two teenage boys. Please let Holly know if you need to reserve any of the district facilities and if you have any story ideas.
