Good evening,

Superintendent Dr. Sara Johnson and Deputy Superintendent Dr. Joel Hoff will be LIVE tomorrow – Friday, March 27th at 3:30pm – to provide an update and answer your questions in our second edition of CCSD Fireside Chat. There are two options available to join LIVE:

1. Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/crookcountyschools>
2. Zoom: <https://zoom.us/j/3328678845>

If you can't watch LIVE, we will provide a link on the CCSD website for you to watch later.

Spring break is coming to an end and our Learning @ Home program begins next Wednesday, April 1st. Here are some key points of information and next steps for teachers, students, and families.

- CCSD is still closed through April 28th unless otherwise directed by Governor Kate Brown.
- Teachers officially report back to work Monday, March 30th & Tuesday, March 31st.
- Classified and other staff will still report to work on the 30th in their assigned role (their regular role or one assigned from the job pool).
- Learning @ Home officially begins Wednesday, April 1st.
- CCSD is providing either Chromebooks and and/or paper packets to every student in the District.
 - Your school will be in touch with details and the district will send out a follow-up email with additional information.
- Free internet access will be provided using buses that are equipped with Wi-Fi.
 - Locations and times to be announced soon.
- The school meal program continues Monday-Friday throughout the closure.
 - We have 19 bus stops and a permanent location at Pioneer South.
 - 1,800 meals being served each day.
 - Below is the updated bus stop locations.

Best,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Sara E. Johnson". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Sara" being the most prominent.
